

How to Say Hello Without Touching

A Social Story

There are lots of ways to say hello without touching.

I can speak and say, "Hi!"

I can wave.

I can smile.

I can nod by moving my head down and up once.

I can bow by bending at the waist.

I can make a "V" with my index and middle fingers to show a peace sign.

I can greet adults and friends at school and show I care with a touch-free hello!
